The Lincoln Theatre Guild's 18th Annual Drama Camp is all about fairy tales. These familiar tales will take on a new perspective with characters making transitions from one tale to another. Our goal is to present creative ways for the students to learn to do what they love. We strive to teach your children the basics of theatre while instilling in them the desire to learn more and become a vital part of this theatre group in the future. Theatre is an opportunity to explore different cultures, lives and places. It's a place where they'll not only have fun bringing outrageous characters to life, but also learn valuable lessons in presentation, speech, character development, makeup, improvisation and writing tales of their own. And, after a week of classes, play rehearsals, and making friends that will last a lifetime you'll see their hard work in a final performance. Let's go on a journey to the Land of "Mixed and Mangled Fairy Tales"!

Students rising 2nd grade through 12th grade are welcome to attend – no experience necessary! Ages 15-18 can be considered for Junior Director roles as well, drama experience is preferred.
